

COURSE OUTCOME

2024/25

EVEN SEMESTERS

NEP COURSE

Submitted to,
THE PRINCIPAL
DEOMORNOI DEGREE COLLEGE,
DARRANG ASSAM

Submitted by,
POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT
DEOMORNOI DEGREE COLLEGE

Signature of H.O.D.

SEMESTER II

Course name 0201 (Indian Government and Politics Core )

This paper acquaints the students with the philosophy of Indian Constitution, evolution of it and the salient features of the constitution. It also examines how Constitution has incorporated Citizenship and Rights in it. This gives an extensive knowledge on the working procedure of the Executive, Legislature as well as the Judiciary. It throws light on the changing nature of Indian federalism and how states are becoming key player in Indian Federalism.

Course name POL-SKILL Course SEC 0202303 Conflict and Peace Building

This paper develops the ability in students to think critically and solve problem. It exhibits good communication skill with a competency for potential differences and the role of negotiation, diplomacy and Gandhian techniques in conflict resolution.

SEMESTER : 4th Semester

Course Name : 04=01 (Understanding International Relations) (MAJOR/MINOR)

The paper provides knowledge on the basic concepts and theories of International Relations. It also focuses on the major political developments of the twentieth century. Another key objective of the paper is to familiarize the students with the Eurocentric Conception of world politics.

COURSE NAME : POL04-02POLITICAL THEORY (Concepts & Debates) (MAJOR)

This paper gives an insight on the basic normative concepts of political theory. Encourage critical and reflective analysis and interpretation of social practices through relevant conceptual toolkit. It also introduces students to the important debates in the subject.

CourseName : POL04-03 Political Processes in India (MAJOR)

This course is helpful in making students familiar with the significant political processes shaping Indian politics in last seven decades. It also provides detailed knowledge on the electoral processes of India, Party system, dynamics of Indian politics like caste system and religion, regionalism as well as changing nature of Indian states.

COURSE NAME : POL04-04 Public Policy and Administration in India (MAJOR/MINOR)

This paper gives basic concept on public policy , policy analysis and governance. Theoretical formulation of different stages of public policy is also covered in this paper. The students will learn the principle of financial management, best practices in public administration like RTI, e – Governance etc. Students can also learn about various welfare policies taken by the government and the role of governance in it,

SEMESTER VI*Course name HC 6016(Modern Political Thought )

The paper intends to introduce students with the modern political philosophy. It explains the ideas of J. J. Rousseau and Marry Wollstonecraft. The paper also intends to develop an elaborate understanding of Liberal Socialists i.e. J. S. Mill and Radicals i. e. Karl Marx, Alexandra Kollontai.

Course Name : HC 6026 ( Indian Political Thought II)

The paper introduces students with modern Indian political thinkers and thoughts. The paper provides a strong knowledge of the themes produced by the political and social thinkers from varies social and temporal contexts.

Course name : HE 6016 (Human Rights in India)

This paper familiarizes the students with the origin and development of human rights as well as the measures adopted in India for the protection of human rights. The paper also makes the students aware on the emerging issues related to human rights.

Course Name : HE 6046 (Select Constitutions II)

This paper deals with the basic concepts of constitution and constitutionalism. It introduces the United Kingdom constitution and the British political traditions and systems. The paper also deals with the constitution of the United States of America and it's Federal System. It helps the students to make a comparative study of both the constitutions and the systems.

Course Name : RE 6016(Public Administration II)

The paper provides a good knowledge on the basics of personnel administration , both processes and institutions. It explains the concepts of financial administration in the country with special reference to the process and principles of budgeting. The paper also introduces the concept of development administration and to the contributions of Fred w. Riggs. It also explains the importance of citizens and administration and introduces the institutions for the redressal of public grievances.